WHAT'S NEW THIS FALL IN GREATER MIAMI AND THE BEACHES

MIAMI (September 2011) – As hot a destination as ever, Miami continues to invest millions in hotels, restaurants, clubs and tourism attractions. Here is an update on the latest news in Greater Miami and the Beaches:

HOTEL HAPPENINGS

One of our Miami Boutique Hotels Hotel Breakwater, the upscale oceanfront boutique resort on Miami Beach's legendary Ocean Drive, has officially reopened its doors. On the heels of a multi-million-dollar renovation, the property will again capture the essence of the city's glamorous lifestyle with its 100 sleek rooms and suites, chic lounges and "unfiltered" concierge services. For more information, visit www.breakwatersouthbeach.com.

One of our Miami Boutique Hotels... Blending classic sophistication and contemporary chic Phase 2 of The Riviera South Beach Hotel, a 52-rooms all-suite hotel located in the up and coming Collins Park neighborhood, will open November 2011. Phase 2 will feature 53 deluxe hotel rooms; the building will be an authentic restoration. Phase 3 will break ground in the future and will be a new build with loft style hotel suites. By mid 2012 the three building Riviera South Beach will feature rooms, suites and loft-style accommodations. I can provide more details on phase, but just wanted to give you the news. www.rivierahotelsouthbeach.com

Just a block from glittering Biscayne Bay, in the heart of the city, Four Seasons Hotel Miami is currently undergoing a $8 million dollar renovation which includes a redesign to all its 221 rooms and a new restaurant, which is scheduled to open later this year in November. This sophisticated urban oasis is within easy reach of the very best of Miami. The sleek tower of luxurious guest rooms and suites offers sweeping vistas and resort-style amenities. www.fourseasons.com/Miami

Home of the PGA Tour Golf Tournament, the Jim McLean Golf School and a world-famous spa, the Doral Golf Resort & Spa, recently completed a $16 million resort-wide renewal in preparation for the resort's 50th anniversary in 2012. The top-to-bottom transformation for the golden jubilee includes: Partnership with the PGA Tour's TPC to name the TPC Blue Monster at Doral. The infamous course hosted its 50th annual PGA

Tour event earlier this year with the WGC-Cadillac Championship. New golf course, The Jim McLean Signature Course, added to championship fairways roster which also includes the Great White, Red and Gold courses. The Spa at Doral renovation and partnership with Pritikin Longevity Center & Spa. New Latin-inspired steakhouse, Mesazul, and Bossa Nova lobby bar. Mesazul was just awarded a Best Restaurant 2011 designation by Wine Spectator magazine. This latest installment of upgrades, in addition to a grand total of $100 million invested over the past five years, provides a high-quality resort experience for all guests. www.doralresort.com

Located directly on beautiful Miami Beach, minutes from South Beach and Miami International Airport, The Eden Roc Renaissance Miami Beach recently completed a 220 million dollar renovation which started in 2008. With the redesign of its Historic Tower and the addition of the sleek new 21-story Ocean Tower, farm-to-table steakhouse 1500°, pool-side bar Aquatica, and ELLE Spa, the Eden Roc Renaissance Miami Beach has almost doubled in size from 349 guest rooms to 631 oversized guest rooms, including three 2,500 sq. ft. penthouse suites, 18 oceanfront one-bedroom suites, and 15 bi-level bungalow suites with floating staircases; all rooms feature flat-screen HDTV's, iPod stations & Wi-Fi high speed internet. Eden Roc Renaissance Miami Beach now offers 28 meeting rooms with 46,000 square feet of flexible indoor meeting space and 25,000 square feet of outdoor event space with breathtaking ocean and intracoastal views. www.edenrocmiami.com

Located less than two miles from South Beach's Art Deco District; The Courtyard by Marriott Miami Beach Oceanfront, originally known as the Cadillac Hotel, steps closer to luxury with the completion of a $1 million lobby and public area renovation. The sleek, modern design features expanded food & beverage offerings, cutting edge technology, a social lobby area, a re-designed fitness suite and tranquil outdoor areas. The hotel welcomes guests to an innovative lobby offering a design that is "simply chic and comfortably hip" while retaining the hotel's art deco style. At check-in guests are greeted by contemporary welcome pedestals with a serene back splash. Media pods feature private seating areas with flat screen TV's and outlets for today's technology. Complimentary internet is provided throughout the hotel including poolside. The GoBoard is a large interactive touch screen display that provides guests access to news, weather and local information. The S Bar which is a limited service Starbucks offering delicious grab and go options is a great addition to the current Courtyard Café, Carrabba's Italian Grill and the Surfside Oceanfront Tiki Bar restaurants. Included in the refreshing makeover is the hotel's largest meeting room which can accommodate 100 people. www.courtyardmiamibeach.com

One of our Miami Boutique Hotels Sole On The Ocean in Sunny Isles Beach is currently undergoing major improvements to its lodging, and food and beverage departments. 170 of the condo-tel's 240 rooms have been retrofitted over the last two years, with additional updates to the remainder in store over the next 12 months. The second floor, ocean-view space has been transformed into the ultra-trendy Alba Lounge, offering guests a place to enjoy cocktails and live music while taking in floor-to-ceiling windows with a sweeping view of the Atlantic Ocean. A new restaurant concept is also in the works and estimated to begin renovations in early 2012. www.soleontheocean.com

A new icon, The St. Regis Bal Harbour Resort, Miami Beach, has arrived. A peerless haven of oceanfront elegance, quiet unwavering taste, anticipatory service and seductive amenities, this exclusive enclave is directly across from the celebrated Bal Harbour Shops and mere minutes from the whirlwind energy of South Beach, Miami, and the area's premier events such as the world-renowned Art Basel. The St. Regis Bal Harbour Resort, Miami Beach features a total of 243 elegantly appointed guest accommodations which all include spacious glass-enclosed balconies with floor-to-ceiling panoramic views of the ocean and white sand beach. They encompass king and double queen rooms; one and two bedroom suites, and a two bedroom Presidential Suites. Amenities include kitchen/kitchenette, premium entertainment systems and "smart" technology, exquisite five fixture marble bathrooms and soft, seductive and refined color palettes, textures and artwork showcasing its stylish destination. www.stregisbalharbour.com

Located in the center of the Miami's global financial hub, you will find over 30 restaurants, cafes, and bars within 1 to 3 blocks from the Hampton Inn Brickell, shopping and entertainment await just a few steps away at the vibrant Mary Brickell Village and only a half-block from the front door, the free MetroMover expands convenience zone to all of downtown Miami, providing easy access to Bayside Marketplace, American Airlines Arena, Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts, Government Center and Courts.

The James Royal Palm scheduled to begin welcoming guests in late 2012, this exciting addition to the South Beach hotel scene is the reincarnation of the historic and much-beloved Royal Palm Hotel. The James Royal Palm will be the brand's first hotel in Florida, with 179 guest rooms and 211 studios and suites, the majority of which have ocean views. Located just steps away from the beach and world-famous Ocean Drive and Collins Avenue, the hotel will also boast two swimming pools, a beachfront restaurant, a poolside bar, a lobby lounge, a full-service spa and over 10,000 square feet of meeting and event space. Poised to be a top luxury hotel in South Beach, The James Royal Palm will offer personalized comfort, generous complimentary amenities, custom-designed, modern furniture and impeccable service to create an environment that is ideal for both business and leisure travelers. The overall renovation will be respectful of the original Royal Palm's history, with several design elements paying homage to the art deco roots of the original hotel as well as the local area. Specifically the property's majestic royal palm trees will remain, continuing to play a key role in welcoming the hotel guests to the front entry drive, with additional palm trees being added to exterior areas near the pool. www.royalpalmmiamibeach.com

COOL CUISINE AND NIGHT LIFE

Opened in Spring 2011 in Coconut Grove following a $750,000 investment to create the restaurant, which features expansive patio dining and a lush garden backdrop, the result of a $100,000 landscaping project. The third restaurant from the Jaguar Hospitality Group, Peacock Garden Café offers garden-fresh cuisine and pays homage to the history of South Florida, with the interior décor featuring an extensive collection of historical documents and renderings. South Florida historian and author Arva Moore Parks was enlisted to ensure the architecture and design paid tribute to the past while honoring existing elements on the property, such as the Woman's Club of Coconut Grove and the grave of Isabella Peacock, Miami's oldest marked grave.

A modern and fresh Peruvian & seafood Cevichery restaurant located in beautiful and romantic Espanola Way in the heart of South beach. Seasoned Peruvian chef Diego Pilares, has assembled an amazing offering of classic and fusion gourmet dishes that range from several ceviches & tiraditos to succulent Lomo saltados, chaufas and a variety of mouth watering appetizers. A full bar compliments the experience with true Peruvian Pisco sours, Chilcano's, maracuya sours and Pisco punch. A great place for all Peruvian cuisine lovers alike!

Sure to become one of the area's most exclusive fine dining establishments, boasting a chic, sophisticated design and a seductive menu, Kane Steakhouse, located at 431 Washington Avenue in South Beach's booming "South of Fifth" area, is now open to the public. The 122-seat restaurant features a beautiful bar offering a vast selection of fine wines and creative cocktails. Ganem (28), a rising culinary star, brings to Kane an unbeatable mix of steakhouse savvy and fine dining experience. In addition to a fine culinary team, the front of the house is overseen by expert restaurant manager John Thai, a familiar face in Miami Thai oversees a seasoned team of servers are either outfitted in black blazers with white piping or in white blazers with black piping, accented with black and white striped ties – inspired by preppy, collegiate uniforms.

Certain to become a bustling hotspot for the area's foodies and hipsters, Egg & Dart, the Miami Design District's new modern, Greek restaurant and bar, named after the iconic decorative moulding prevalent in Greek architecture, Egg & Dart will combine contemporary sophistication with rustic regional cuisine, served up in a vibrant convivial atmosphere. The 202-seat restaurant features organic clay walls, polished concrete floors and white lacquered tabletops, creating an unpretentious yet sexy ambiance. Egg & Dart will combine the best of what Greek dining has to offer – comforting rustic cuisine and warm and inviting service, with a hip, modern surrounding that today's diner is looking for," says Theodorou. Revelers and diners can mingle and imbibe at the stunning cherry wood and polished concrete bar, complete with recycled glass lighting. A banquette lining the length of the restaurant, an Indonesian teak communal table and an eye-catching fresh seafood display create an inviting, contemporary vibe. Sleek frosted glass doors lead to a stunning private dining room, complete with a state-of-the-art video and sound system which accommodates 30 guests comfortably.

Renowned restaurateur, David Manero, once again establishes a generations-old philosophy in rustic Italian cuisine for the opening of Vic & Angelo's restaurant, now open in Miami Beach's trendy 'South of Fifth' neighborhood on Ocean Drive. Corporate Chef, Paul Griffin, is at the helm of the kitchen at the new Vic & Angelo's South Beach Coal Oven Enoteca on Ocean Drive, bringing the same signature menu items to the South of Fifth location that have proven popular with Palm Beach and Delray Beach patrons. Renowned restaurateur, David Manero, once again establishes a generations-old philosophy in rustic Italian cuisine for the opening of Vic & Angelo's restaurant. With home-cooked signature dishes fresh from the garden to the plate, Vic & Angelo's in South Beach will pioneer a long-awaited upscale fine dining experience at an affordable price. Known for its award-winning specialty pizza, Vic & Angelo's will offer the first authentic Coal Oven Pizza in South Beach, formulated from ancient starter dough that dates back to Manero's Neapolitan family recipe. The interior by Lynn Interior Design reflects an upscale contemporary Mediterranean take on retro modern classicism. Weekend brunch and bar menus are available as well as a second floor after-hours lounge. www.vicandangelos.com

Scheduled to reopen in Mid-November, the Rusty Pelican is currently undergoing a multimillion dollar renovation. The restaurant will feature a new design, a new local Florida menu, and a transformation of the interior design and layout to give it a more modern look with a spectacular view of the Miami skyline. www.TheRustyPelican.com

Chef Jacques Van Staden is no stranger to larger-than-life dining concepts or haute cuisine. After all, the South African born chef was the former executive chef of famed Las Vegas' Alizé at the Top of the Palms, during which time it earned a Michelin star, and has worked with such iconic toques as Michel Richard, Jean-Louis Palladin and Gray Kunz. Now, Van Staden is bringing his keen eye for detail and globally-inspired cooking style to Miami as chef/owner of the revitalized and reimagined Chophouse Miami Bistro & Lounge. Located in the heart of downtown Miami, Chophouse – which originally opened under different management in 2010 – will unveil its new look and menu by Thanksgiving 2011. The restaurant's interiors are currently being renovated and when it's complete, Chophouse Miami Bistro & Lounge, seating 140 in the dining room and 60 outside on the cigar-friendly patio, will feature a gorgeous sushi bar, casually-elegant dining room and an interactive wine tasting area in the lounge. Adjacent to the lounge is a vibrant bar boasting a menu of hand-crafted cocktails and premium spirits such as whiskey, rum and vodka. www.chophousemiami.com

Opening in October 2011, Amnesia Miami will be hitting the nightclub scene in South Beach with an 18,000 square foot venue designed to perfectly fit a superstar DJ with an extended DJ booth that features six moving LED walls. There are over 200 light heads that will move to the beats of the music with high ceilings and a stage that will be used by special guests, announcers, and anyone else who decides to climb up there to perform. There are two floors to this mega club, so you're bound to have a good time no matter where you are. The best part? A 25-foot wide open dance floor! There will also be 70 VIP tables around the nightclub which will be great to book when a DJ or other super star comes to the club for an appearance. Resident DJ and partner, Bob Sinclair, will be at Amnesia Miami once a month, a residency that will definitely highlight many weekends to come. www.amnesiamiami.com/

ATTRACTION ACTION AND SPECIAL EVENTS

A brand-new $51 million state-of-the-art performing arts venue is officially introduced to the South Miami-Dade community the much-anticipated South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center, which opened early October, designed by an internationally-acclaimed design team that includes Arquitectonica International, Inc. The Volvo Ocean Race, a yacht race around the world, held every three years is entering its 11th edition which kicks off on the 29th of October 2011. The race will include 10 stops, with Miami, FL being the only North American port of call for the 2011-2012 edition of the Ocean Race. The race will begin in Alicante, Spain with the route continuing to Cape Town, South Africa; Abu Dhabi, UAE; Sanya, China PR; Auckland, Australia; Itajaí, Brazil; Miami, FL USA; Lisbon Portugal, Lorient, France; and the race will finish with an in-port race in Galway, Ireland on the 7th of July 2012. Each of the entries into the Volvo Ocean Race will have a sailing team of 11 professional crew members. The race requires their utmost skills, physical endurance and competitive spirit as they race day and night for more than 20 days at a time, on some of the legs. They will each take on different jobs on board the boat, and on top of these sailing roles, there will be two sailors that have had medical training, as well as a sailmaker, an engineer and a dedicated media crew member. During the race the crews will experience life at the extreme: no fresh food is taken on board, so they live off freeze-dried fare; they will experience temperature variations from -5 to +40 degrees Celsius and will only take one change of clothes. They will trust their lives to the boat and the skipper and experience hunger and sleep deprivation. The estimated date of port in Miami is scheduled for May 6, 2012, with the in-port race kicking off on the 19th of May, 2012.
