WELCOME

STAY & PLAY Visit Miami pre- and post-cruise for at least a few days to allow time to explore. Bask on the beaches to get into the mood for a relaxing cruise or to extend the afterglow of a wonderful experience at sea. Greater Miami and the Beaches is celebrated for turquoise waters, white sandy beaches and picture-perfect weather. Myriad attractions, family-friendly activities, recreational options, museums, festivals and fairs add a spicy sense of fun. A wide range of accommodations, world-class cuisine, sizzling nightlife, and infinite shopping opportunities are just part of the magical appeal of our city.
Tantalizing Treats
Miami’s international flair, seaside locale and fresh, local produce add up to unforgettable dining experiences. New World cuisine tantalizes with dishes featuring eclectic combinations of tropical fruits and exotic spices. Ethnic delights can be found around every corner of our multicultural city. Local chefs create mouthwatering new taste sensations in settings ranging from poolside to palatial. Greater Miami and the Beaches is truly a gourmet adventure.

Sizzling Nights
Sultry by day, the city gets even steamier by night when the clubs, lounges and other late-night spots invite revelers to party the night away. Slip into something black and sexy, and check out the nightclubs. Dance under the stars, immerse yourself in the city’s internationally renowned nightlife, and party into the wee hours. Life’s a party—especially when you’re on vacation!

Adventures in Shopping
Greater Miami and the Beaches is a destination made for shopping. An exciting mix of haute couture, retail markets, designer boutiques and bargain outlets test the stamina of even the most dedicated shopper. Adjacent to PortMiami is Bayside Marketplace, an open-air shopping and entertainment center. You can shop for colorful souvenirs here, dine at one of the restaurants including Hard Rock Miami, or take one of several sightseeing cruises that depart from Bayside on a regular schedule. Double-decker bus tours of the city also depart from Bayside.

Other shopping options close to the Port include Downtown Miami, with a Macy’s department store, assorted shops and numerous fine jewelry stores. Easily reachable from PortMiami by a 15-minute taxi ride or via the Metromover are Mary Brickell Village, an enclave of open-air shops and restaurants; and Brickell City Centre, a brand new luxury mixed-use development. On South Beach, you can choose from designer shopping along Collins and Washington avenues, Española Way, Ocean Drive or the historic and always bustling Lincoln Road promenade. Visit ShopMiami.travel to find out more about shopping in Greater Miami and the Shop Miami Program.

One Day in Miami
If your schedule only allows for one day in Miami, don’t fret. You can enjoy a few highlights and still get the flavor of this wonderful, fun-filled city. The Art Deco Historic District in South Beach is a must-see. Stop by the Art Deco Welcome Center at 10th Street and Ocean Drive for information and self-guided walking tours. Jump on a double-decker bus tour from Bayside Marketplace for a chance to see Miami’s interesting neighborhoods like Little Havana, Coconut Grove, Coral Gables and South Beach. Grab lunch at an outdoor cafe or take a Miami food tour to sample ethnic specialties. Culture vultures can check out one of Miami’s many top-notch museums, such as nearby Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM) and the Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science, or see what’s on the playbill at the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts. Check the Calendar of Events at MiamiandBeaches.com for the latest happenings.

Family Fun
From sandy beaches to exotic animals and cool pools, Miami is full of family-friendly fun. Tropical attractions, children’s theater and super cool museums are waiting to be explored. Quiet parks, nature walks, Everglades adventures and water activities abound. Free fun includes the beach, along with concerts at Bayfront Park, art walks, free museum days and Metromover—the elevated rail that loops around Downtown Miami offering bird’s eye views of the city. Visit CultureShockMiami.com for student discounts to cultural events.
